Team Singapore finishes Asian Games with 2 gold, 9 silver and 7 bronze

Description

default watermark

Team Singapore finishes the 2026 Asian Games in Aichi-Nagoya on Sunday 4 October with 2 gold, 9 silver and 7 bronze, 18 medals in all, from a 304-athlete cohort across 27 sports. The closing ceremony is tonight.

Shanti Pereira celebrates after the 200m final in Nagoya on 27 September, with Chen Yujie (left) and Harita Bhadra behind. Photo: SpexSG/Jeremy Lee

default watermark

20th Asian Game

Aichi-Nagoya 2026 emblem. Photo: Team Singapore

The golds came early in Singaporeâ??s medal run. Tiffany Teo took womenâ??s traditional MMA 60kg on 22 September. Shanti Pereira won the womenâ??s 200m on 27 September after silver in the 100m.

The silver haul

Gan Ching Hwee collected three swimming silvers in the womenâ??s 1500m, 400m and 800m freestyle. Kiria Tikanah took womenâ??s individual Ã©pÃ©e silver. Loh Kean Yew finished runner-up in menâ??s badminton singles. Sailing added three more silvers: Sean Kum and Nigel Tan in the boysâ?? 29er, Jania Ang in womenâ??s ILCA 6, and Ian Goh in boysâ?? ILCA 4.

Bronzes and the finish

Bronzes included Zeanne Law in wushu taijiquan and taijijian, Maxine Wong in womenâ??s foil, the womenâ??s fencing team, Darren Yap in taekwondo poomsae, Shannon Tan in womenâ??s golf and John Wong in boysâ?? iQFoil.

default watermark

Yap added a second bronze in mixed virtual taekwondo on 2 October, a day after his poomsae medal. Wongâ??s iQFoil bronze is Singaporeâ??s first Asian Games windsurfing medal and the fourth sailing medal of the Games, after three silvers.

The tally tops the 16 medals from Hangzhou 2023. The 2026 squad leaves Japan with golds in MMA and athletics, a deep swimming and fencing haul, Lohâ??s badminton silver and a late sailing surge.

Date Created
04/10/2026
Author
jadeyeo