teamLab Infinite Existence at Supper House is free from 19 September to 8 November 2026

Description

teamLab: Infinite Existence opens at Supper House, 37 Keppel Road Unit 04-02, from 19 September to 8 November 2026. Entry is free.

It is the first solo exhibition Supper House has hosted for the Japanese digital art collective, and the first teamLab solo show in Singapore ahead of the permanent museum planned for Gardens by the Bay in 2028.

Hours and access

Opening hours are Thursday to Saturday, 12:00 to 19:00, and Sunday, 12:00 to 17:00. The gallery is closed Monday to Wednesday.

Supper House sits at 37 Keppel Road, Unit 04-02. teamLab describes the show as centred on Ultrasubjective Space, borrowing compositional ideas from premodern East Asian scrolls and screens so the viewer moves through the work rather than standing outside a fixed frame.

What the organiser says the work is

The collective's own copy points to leaping tigers, blossoming flowers and a medieval city, with waves, waterfalls and deep geological time among the eight pieces. Presented by Supper House in collaboration with Ikkan Art LLC.

Free entry and a fixed Keppel Road address make this the short preview before the larger Gardens by the Bay museum. If you need a weekend slot, Thursday to Sunday are the only open days on the published timetable.
