The weekend sits inside the mall's Pawsome Spooktober campaign, which runs from 12 October to 1 November. Pets are welcome throughout the three days.

Paws and Play Market

The Paws and Play Market sells pet treats, toys and accessories across the weekend. Tesla runs a roadshow alongside it, where owners can book a test drive with their dog on board to try the car's Pet Mode. Test drive slots are booked through Tesla's own event page.

Owners heading down with a pet can use the code TIONGBAHRU10 for 10 per cent off pet-friendly rides to and from the mall booked on the Grab app.

Costume contest on Saturday

The Cutest Paw-lloween Contest starts at 7.30pm on Saturday 17 October. Pets walk a catwalk in Halloween outfits and are judged on cuteness, Halloween spirit, creativity and originality. Owners who dress up with their pets earn bonus points.

Places are limited and registration is through the mall's online form. Registered owners report to the registration booth by 7pm on the day for a briefing.

First prize is a S$300 FRx gift card, four months of Milk/Oi Kitty Litter, a Tesla Glow Lantern and pet products from participating brands. Photo challenge on Instagram

Owners who would rather skip the catwalk can enter the Paw-lloween IG Photo Challenge from 16 to 18 October. Nine shortlisted photos go up on the mall's Instagram page for public voting from 12pm on 24 October to 11.59pm on 1 November. Shortlisted owners hear by Instagram direct message by 23 October.
