How the TOFU G topping bar works

Pick any signature live-churned tofu gelato cup for S$8, add the Topping Bar for a flat S$2 (S$10 for a fully loaded cup), and load up with as many toppings as the cup will hold. There is no weighing or counting. Every cup starts with tofu made in-house from premium soybeans and churned live at the counter, giving a light, creamy texture and a clean finish.

The toppings: from injeolmi to tempeh chips

Four outlets (Suntec City, Waterway Point, Great World and Raffles City) carry a twelve-topping selection:

- Nuts: almond slices, pecans, walnuts, pistachio kernels, roasted peanut
- Korean snacks: injeolmi, joripong, rice crispy puffs, yakgwa
- Dried fruit: cranberries
- Soy-based: tempeh chips
- Sweet: marshmallow sprinkles (contains gelatin)

VivoCity has a six-topping selection, including pistachio kernels, injeolmi, joripong, yakgwa, mini chocolate chips and coconut flakes. As the bar is a shared, open-service station, guests with allergies or dietary requirements should check with staff first.
