

UOB Travel Insider Deal: Check Card Offers Before Booking Your Trip

Description

default watermark

UOB Travel Insider deal pages are worth checking before you book flights, hotels or holiday activities with a UOB card. UOBâ??s travel section gathers card-linked travel privileges, which can include booking offers, travel inspiration and partner promotions depending on the current campaign.

The useful habit is to check the card offer before paying, not after. Travel bookings often involve higher spends, so even a modest promo code, card rebate or partner offer can matter if it applies to a trip you were already going to book.

Treat this as a booking-window offer rather than a universal travel discount. Check travel dates, eligible products, promo-code mechanics, card-payment rules and exclusions before paying.

The final saving can change once taxes, fees, add-ons, currency conversion and platform rules are included. Compare the checkout total, not only the headline voucher or discount amount.

If you are booking for more than one traveller, confirm whether the offer is capped by booking, cardmember, passenger or transaction. Those limits matter for family and group trips.

Key Details

- Offer type: Travel-related UOB card privileges and partner offers.
- Merchant mix: Varies by current UOB Travel Insider campaign.
- Eligibility: UOB cardmembers, subject to each offerâ??s terms.
- Best use: Flights, hotels, packages or activities you already intend to book.

How To Claim

- Open the official UOB Travel Insider page before booking.
- Choose the relevant offer and read the merchant-specific terms.
- Use the required booking link, promo code or eligible UOB card payment method.

Main Terms

- Each partner offer has its own validity, cap, blackout dates and exclusions.
- Promotions may change without notice once redemption caps are reached.
- Check cancellation and refund terms with the travel merchant before paying.

Date Created
12/05/2026
Author
gracelim

default watermark