

Verandah adds two F1-inspired cocktails at Momentus Hotel Alexandra from 1 October

Description

As Singapore shifts into race-season mode, Verandah Pool Bar & Grill at Momentus Hotel Alexandra is getting in on the action with two limited-edition cocktails built around the energy, colour and excitement of the season, best enjoyed beside its floating rooftop pool.

Available from 1 to 31 October 2026 at S$22++ a glass, the drinks give guests a refreshing way to soak up the buzz from the rooftop, whether that is a pre-dinner tippie, a post-race wind-down or a catch-up with friends against the Singapore skyline.

Two cocktails, two very different moods

Papaya Reign is made for those who like a kick. A tropical mix of mango juice, spiced rum, fresh papaya puree and passion fruit syrup is brightened with lime, before a dash of Tabasco chilli brings a fiery finish. It is the bolder of the pair, and the one to order if you want a talking point.

Silver Protocol is the cooler customer. Premium vodka is blended with blue curacao, lime and cucumber syrup, then topped with soda water for a crisp finish. Its striking silver-blue hue makes it an eye-catching addition to the rooftop, and an easy sipper on a warm Singapore evening.

A floating poolside setting

Half the appeal is where you drink them. Verandah's floating poolside bar turns a simple round of drinks into something more of an occasion, with the skyline for company and the pool a few steps away. It is a low-key alternative to the busier race-weekend haunts, and handy for anyone staying on the city's western side.
