

vivo Singapore Is Launching the X300 FE on 25 May - Here's How to Get an Early Look

Description

Compact design. Super telephoto capability. All co-engineered with ZEISS.

vivo Singapore is hosting an exclusive launch event for the vivo X300 FE on 25 May 2026 (Monday) at Swee Lee Clarke Quay and invitations are going out to media right now. If you've been eyeing vivo's latest collaboration with ZEISS, this is your chance to get hands-on with it before the rest of Singapore does.

A ZEISS-Powered Compact

The vivo X300 FE is co-engineered with ZEISS and brings a Super Telephoto Camera to a compact smartphone form factor - a pairing that positions it firmly in the conversation around premium mobile photography in a pocket-friendly design. The full specification sheet is expected to be unveiled at the launch event itself on 25 May.
