Singapore is set to ring with voices from across the globe this July. Voices of the World (VOTW) International Choir Festival 2026 returns from 16 to 20 July 2026, bringing together world-class choirs from seven nations for five days of choral concerts, workshops, and cultural exchange. Organised by Voices of Singapore (VOS), this is one of the region's premier international choral events.

Seven Nations, Five Days of Choral Excellence

VOTW 2026 will feature choirs from Singapore, South Korea, the Philippines, China, Hong Kong, Taiwan, and Japan performing across three prestigious Singapore venues: CHIJMES Hall, Capitol Theatre, and Enabling Village. The festival showcases a diverse programme spanning classical choral works, contemporary pieces, and folk traditions from across Asia and beyond.

What to Expect

The festival programme includes public concerts open to all music lovers, giving audiences the rare opportunity to hear multiple international choirs perform in one intimate setting. Whether you are a lifelong choral enthusiast or simply enjoy live vocal music, VOTW 2026 promises an immersive experience across its five-day run.

With performances spread across CHIJMES Hall's Gothic-inspired nave, the grand Capitol Theatre, and the inclusive community space at Enabling Village, each venue lends a distinct atmosphere to the concerts. Attendees are encouraged to catch performances at more than one venue to fully experience the breadth of the festival.
