Exhibitions This June

Crosscurrents: Masterpieces of Mughal, Safavid, and Ottoman Art from the Musée du Louvre

19 June 2026 to 24 January 2027 | Asian Civilisations Museum

For the first time in Southeast Asia, close to 100 Islamic art masterpieces from the Musée du Louvre will be on display at ACM. The exhibition spans 16th–18th century objects from three Islamic empires – Mughal India, Safavid Iran, and the Ottoman Empire – shown alongside selected items from ACM’s own Southeast Asian Islamic art collection.

Daily 10am–7pm; Fridays 10am–9pm. Free for Singaporeans and PRs; $25 for Foreign Residents and Tourists.

BALLET: The Making of an Œuvre

29 May to 15 August 2026 | La Galerie, Alliance Française de Singapour

An exhibition exploring the world of the Paris Opera Ballet – the training, transformation, and discipline behind becoming an Ã©toile. Free admission.

One Ocean: Every Action Ripples

From 30 May 2026 | Science Centre Singapore

Making its worldwide debut in Singapore, this multi-sensory exhibition brings the Tara Ocean Polar Station to life through VR, immersive projections, and spatial soundscapes. Tickets from $13.

The Art of Chamber Music Exhibition

11 to 21 June 2026 | Objectifs Centre for Photography & Film

Celebrating the intimacy of chamber music through photography and film. Features a documentary by NAC Young Artist Award 2024 recipient Tan Si En. Free admission.
