

vOilah! France Singapore Festival 2026 Returns With French Food Market, Cultural Programmes and More

Description

The vOilah! France Singapore Festival 2026 is back, running from 25 April to 20 June 2026, bringing a vibrant season of cultural exchange between France and Singapore. Organised by the Embassy of France, this year's edition promises a rich lineup of culinary, arts and cultural programmes.

vOilah! French Food Market at VivoCity

Kicking off the festivities is the vOilah! French Food Market at VivoCity on 24 April. The market brings together producers and importers to showcase a curated selection of French produce — from artisanal cheese to pastries, chocolate and wines. It's a chance to explore, sample, and engage directly with the makers behind some of France's finest culinary offerings.

Official Opening Ceremony

The festival's official opening ceremony will feature His Excellency Stephen Marchisio, Ambassador of France to Singapore, sharing more about the 2026 edition and the programmes ahead. He will be joined by Executive Chef Sebastien Lepinoy of the three-Michelin-starred French restaurant Les Amis. The evening also presents an opportunity to connect with festival partners, artists and collaborators.
