Two museums, three weekends, a whole lot of fun coming up for Singapore families. Asian Civilisations Museum (ACM) and Peranakan Museum are rolling out an exciting lineup of programmes this May and June â?? from a play-themed Childrenâ??s Season to a dazzling peacock-inspired festival. Hereâ??s what to catch.

Childrenâ??s Season 2026 at ACM: Play On! (30â??31 May)

On 30 and 31 May 2026, the Asian Civilisations Museum joins Childrenâ??s Season 2026 with a special edition titled Play On! The two-day programme invites children and families to discover stories of trade, travel and cultural exchange through interactive installations, performances, drop-in craft activities and hands-on play experiences. Itâ??s a playful way to engage with Singaporeâ??s rich heritage â?? and the whole family gets to enter the museum for free on both days.

Donâ??t miss the final month of Letâ??s Play! The Art and Design of Asian Games at ACM. Visitors can enter for free on 30â??31 May and 6â??7 June 2026.

Date: 30â??31 May 2026
Venue: Asian Civilisations Museum, 1 Empress Place, Singapore 179555
Admission: Free on 30â??31 May
