The Wild Wild Wet 1-for-1 deal gets you two off-peak adult day passes for S$29 on 11 November 2026 only, from 11am. That is S$14.50 a head against the usual S$29 off-peak adult price, according to the official 11.11 promotion page. You can use the pair from 11 to 20 November 2026, or from January to March 2027.

It is a one-day flash sale, so set a reminder for Wednesday morning if you and a kaki have been meaning to make the trip to Pasir Ris.

Which days count as off-peak

Off-peak means weekdays that are not gazetted school or public holidays, per Wild Wild Wetâ??s day pass page. The park is closed every Tuesday. MOEâ??s year-end holidays start on 21 November, which is why the November window ends on 20 November.

In November, that leaves Wednesday 11, Thursday 12, Friday 13, Monday 16, Wednesday 18, Thursday 19 and Friday 20 November. If you are pushing it to next year, avoid these peak dates listed by the park:

- 01 January 2027 (New Yearâ??s Day)
- 06 to 08 February 2027 (Chinese New Year)
- 10 March 2027 (Hari Raya Puasa)
- 13 to 21 March 2027 (March school holidays)
- 26 March 2027 (Good Friday)

Opening hours, address and getting there

- Address: 1 Pasir Ris Close, Singapore 519599 (Downtown East)
- Weekday hours: 12pm to 6pm, last admission 5pm
- Closed on Tuesdays
- MRT: Pasir Ris (EW1), then walk or take a bus from Pasir Ris Bus Interchange
- Buses: 3, 5, 6, 12, 17, 21, 89, 354 and 358, alighting at the first stop after the interchange

Check the guest services page before you go. At the time of writing, the park lists Torpedo, Free Fall, Vortex, Kraken Racer and Ular-lah as closed for maintenance until further notice, while Slide Up only runs from 3pm. The park can also close for private corporate events.

What to bring and what is still running

Towel rental and cabana towel services are suspended until further notice, so pack your own towel. There are 732 lockers at the Locker Bay beside the changing rooms if you do not want to leave valuables on a deck chair.

With the bigger slides out, your S$14.50 mainly buys time in the Tsunami wave pool, the Shiok River lazy river, Royal Flush and Water Works. Slide Up is the one big thrill ride open, and only from 3pm, so time your visit to catch it before last admission at 5pm. Wild Wild Wet also publishes a dress code for its rides, so read it before you pack.

How to buy on the day

The deal is sold online through the official Wild Wild Wet website from 11am on 11 November. Have your visit date picked before you check out, since both passes are tied to the same day and cannot be refunded or moved to someone else.

Only buy from wildwildwet.com. The park says it will turn away deals bought from inactive listings on search engines or other sites, so skip any reseller offering the same price.

Terms worth knowing

- Cannot be combined with other promotions, discounts or vouchers
- No LinkPoints issued or redeemed
- Non-refundable, non-transferable and not for resale
- Only promotions live on the official website on the day of admission are honoured

The NTUC member rate on regular day passes is 30% off, which works out to about S$20.30 for an off-peak adult. The 1-for-1 still beats that by a few dollars per head, so it is the cheaper route even for union members.

Is it worth it?

At S$14.50 each, it is cheaper than most movie tickets, and a weekday afternoon in mid-November should be quieter than the school holidays. Just go in expecting a chill wave-pool day rather than a thrill run. Make a day of it in the east by checking out the Downtown East Christmas events from 16 November.

If you are planning a bigger trip, the Klook 11.11 codes drop on the same day, and our guide to ActiveSG swim and gym rates covers cheaper ways to get in the pool.
