Show details

Venue is Esplanade Theatre, 1 Esplanade Drive. Doors lead into an evening billed at about 140 minutes with no intermission. Children under 10 are not admitted; ages 10 and up need their own ticket.

The concert is produced with Euphoric Production and Street Festival. The programme reworks Solaris-3 soundtrack cues with a live orchestra and guest vocalists, matched to character visuals on stage.

Tickets and sold-out status

Face prices on the SISTIC sale ran from S$78 to S$188 across standard and restricted-view categories, with a two-ticket limit per patron when the board was open.

That primary allocation is now sold out on SISTIC. If you already hold tickets, Saturday 26 September at 8pm is the locked Singapore date. Secondary listings, where they appear, sit outside the official SISTIC board and are not part of the primary sale.

Where this stop sits on the tour

Earlier Asian dates in Shanghai, Tokyo, Seoul and Taipei also sold through. Los Angeles at Peacock Theater on 17 October closes the tour after Singapore.

Exclusive venue merchandise was confirmed for premium tiers at earlier stops, including a holographic bag, commemorative stub, lyric sheet, setlist booklet and clear folder. Arrive early if you plan to queue for merch before the 8pm start.
