

Xinyao 44th Reunion Concert 2026: Singapore Indoor Stadium Guide

Description

Xinyao 44th Reunion Concert is listed by Ticketmaster for 3 July 2026 at Singapore Indoor Stadium. The listing shows an 8pm Friday show and ticket prices from S$88 to S$248, making it a clear nostalgia and heritage concert pick for Mandarin music fans.

Xinyao holds a specific place in Singapore's music memory because it is tied to local youth culture, songwriting and campus-era performance. A reunion concert is therefore more than a standard touring stop; it is a chance for older fans to revisit songs with local roots and for younger listeners to understand why the movement still matters.

Key Details

The official ticketing result lists the concert date as 3 July 2026, Friday, at Singapore Indoor Stadium. It also states that ticket sales started on 21 March 2026 at 12pm. Readers planning to go should compare seat categories early because heritage concerts often draw multi-generation groups who want to sit together.

The Indoor Stadium is familiar, but it can still be slow after shows. If you are going with parents or older relatives, agree on a meeting point and transport route before entering.
