What to Expect at YEAH GELATO

YEAH GELATO has built a reputation as one of Singapore's most exciting artisanal gelato brands, known for its commitment to crafting small-batch, handmade gelato using premium ingredients sourced from around the world. Their Plaza Singapura outlet, situated on Level 1 of the mall, is a popular destination for dessert lovers in the Dhoby Ghaut area.

The brand's gelato is made fresh daily using traditional Italian techniques combined with distinctly Asian-inspired flavours. Customers can expect to find an extensive rotating menu featuring both classic and seasonal options. Favourites include their signature Pistachio Royale, made with Sicilian pistachios, as well as crowd-pleasers like Belgian Chocolate Fudge, Madagascar Vanilla Bean, and their uniquely Singaporean Pandan Gula Melaka flavour.

For those who prefer something fruity, the brand also offers a range of refreshing sorbets, including Alphonso Mango, Passion Fruit, and Lychee Rose. All sorbets are dairy-free, making them a great option for those with dietary restrictions. The gelato is displayed in a traditional Italian-style counter, allowing customers to see all the available flavours before making their selection.

How the 1-for-1 Promotion Works

The 1-for-1 promotion applies to all single-scoop purchases made at the Plaza Singapura outlet on 19 April 2026. Customers simply need to purchase one scoop at the regular price to receive a second scoop of equal or lesser value completely free of charge. There is no minimum spend, and the promotion is available for both cones and cups.

Regular single-scoop prices at YEAH GELATO range from S$4.90 to S$5.90 depending on the flavour category. With the 1-for-1 deal, that means two scoops for as little as S$4.90 – making this one of the best gelato deals available in Singapore this weekend.

Getting There

Plaza Singapura is located at 68 Orchard Road, directly above Dhoby Ghaut MRT station, which serves the North-South Line, North-East Line, and Circle Line. The mall is easily accessible from all parts of Singapore. YEAH GELATO's outlet is on Level 1, near the main atrium area. For those driving, Plaza Singapura offers basement parking with rates starting from S$1.30 per half hour on weekends.

If you are planning to visit, it is advisable to arrive early as 1-for-1 promotions tend to draw significant queues, particularly during the weekend afternoon hours. The outlet typically opens at 11:00 AM, and the promotion runs throughout the entire operating day until closing at 10:00 PM.

Other Gelato Deals in Singapore

While YEAH GELATO's 1-for-1 promotion is one of the best ice cream deals happening this weekend, Singapore has a thriving artisanal gelato scene with numerous other brands offering quality frozen treats. Brands such as Birds of Paradise, Creamier, and Merely Ice Cream have all carved out loyal followings with their distinctive flavour profiles and use of natural ingredients.

That said, finding a 1-for-1 deal on artisanal gelato is relatively rare in Singapore, which makes this YEAH GELATO promotion particularly noteworthy. Whether you are a long-time fan of the brand or trying their gelato for the first time, this is an excellent opportunity to sample their range at half the usual price. Mark your calendar for 19 April 2026 and head to Plaza Singapura for a sweet treat this Saturday.
